

Dear customer,

Thank you for your purchase from us. We truly appreciate your business.

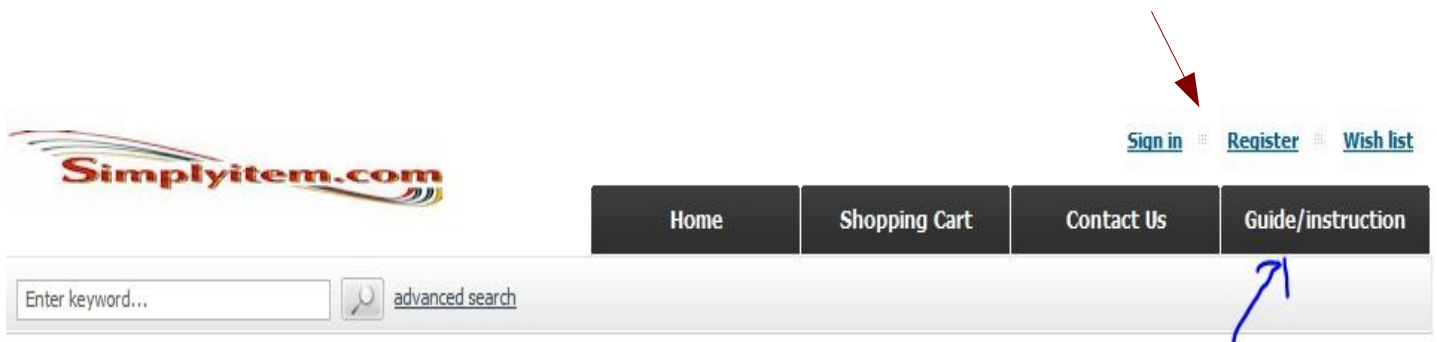

The item(s) has been shipped and we hope that you are pleased with your purchase.

If you have any questions about your order or unable to locate the instruction(s), please contact us by email at cs@simplyitem.com. Please be sure to include your Ebay user name or the order number when contacting us to ensure faster service.

If you purchased an item that needs instructions, please see our guide below to access our site. Due to the many models that the item(s) is applied or used for, we are providing easy access of instructions through our website to better accommodate each customer(s) need.

Please visit our website at www.simplyitem.com.

Click on Guide/Instruction on the upper right hand corner of our website.

The Guide/Instruction link has a list of printer models. Just click on the specific model you inquire under Knowledge-base or use the Search query for access of instructions and/or manuals.

If you are satisfied with your order, we would really appreciate your feedback. With the feedback, we are able to keep doing business and future customers can choose and trust us with their online purchases.

Thank you for your time and we hope to serve you in the future.

Best regards
